

Japanese bamboo pendant lamp "KAIZEN".

Our "KAIZEN" lamp, inspired by Japanese design, is the perfect addition to your home. The structure made of bamboo provides the warm and natural look of natural fibers, which adapt to any modern setting. It features a central diffuser and a screen made of bamboo fibers arranged symmetrically, creating an original design that allows light to flow harmoniously to the outside. It features three possible options for the canopy and cable (white, black, and natural rope), so you can choose the one that best matches your environment. Accepts E27 bulb (not included)
